SERVICE DAY AT CASA ESPERANZA: Saturday, Sept 7th

CASA ESPERANZA has been open for 9 years. It is a home for young ladies that are no longer able to live in the orphanage because they are 18 years young. The home is under the umbrella of "Vision for Children" which has been around for 22 years and is a 501(c)(3) in the United States.

Casa Esperanza is located in La Pintana, one of the poorest neighborhoods of Santiago. God is transforming the lives of these young ladies and giving them a future. Through our support, they are able to share God with the neighborhood children by feeding them (some only have 1 healthy meal per week) and by educating them in Math, English, Arts & Crafts, Cooking, and Music. It's beautiful to see these little lives light up while we share in all these workshops with them.

We need you to help either by coming out on September 7th or donating an item:
