- Sunday School—The new school year underway, and our Sunday school ministry has launched too. A caring group Christian adults have committed to love and teach our children. So, get your children involved and consider how you too can support this ministry.
- Asado—Are you ready for some food? I hope so, because following today’s service, San Marcos is having its second summer BBQ! If you are unsure of the details, ask one of the deacons, elders, or pastors for more information. We look forward to seeing you there.
- Pastor’s Corner (Proposal)—the Teaching elders are considering whether or not to start an online and/or in-person forum where members and guests can ask questions about the sermon. So, please let us know if you would find this helpful for growing in Christlikeness.
